Happenings of Interest in and Around Columbus

Mrs. McCarty, Retired,
Mrs. McCarthy maintains the Twelve Trifles Club after all her resources.

One Picket in R. R. Work.
Harry Pickett expects to start in Sunday evening freight at the R.
R. & W. depot in this city.

Mrs. Frie to See Husband.

Mrs. Frie, wife of Sam Frie, will leave the latter part of the week for California to join her husband. Mr.
Frie has been in California for some time for the benefit of his health.
He has been benefited but will remain there until the fall weather is over.

Did You Buy a Ratt? Ticket?

Next Thursday evening June 24 is the date, and the R. P. Ratt is the place where local League No. 42, Knights of Pythias, will hold their ball. The best music obtainable will be there. The social committee which has the entertainment in charge is composed of five men and they can be depended upon to do their part. Buy a ticket.

May Charge What They Please.

While Columbus merchants have never been accused of overcharging but as a matter of fact the Daily Courier has received a telegram to the effect that the nation of the Lower East, commonly known as the food control bill, which made it an offense for a merchant to charge unjust or unreasonable prices, was probably held to be unconstitutional by United States District Judge Thompson of Philadelphia.

All Men Return from El Paso.

Harry Whipple returned from El Paso last night. Mr. Whipple and Mr.
Whipple worked El Paso for over several days and were promised the fact that they return to that city.
Mr. Whipple said that Mr. Stiles, who came about everything south of the tracks, had arrived in less than all of his holdings in the new territory. Everything is in possession at the well as well as immediate reception of work. "But" Imperial has a big responsibility on his hands now. In fact, he has a chance to make himself immortal. If he brings in the Daily Courier has all provisions made to print his name in capital letters and red ink.

The Model's New Store.

Since construction started on the new First building everyone has been wondering who the new tenant was. The secret is out. It is to be an exclusive girls' store. It will probably be called the Model. This new concern is not an expectation.
It is sponsored by experienced business men who have not only made a success in Columbus but have outgrown their present quarters. Capital that, fixtures, inventories located in the Clark hotel building, are the losses of the business are more than the interior decoration have limited will occupy the building. They will retain their present location but it will probably be used exclusively as a ladies' establishment.

POLICE ARREST SOLDIERS
AFTER HOLDUP ON STREETS

Henry Valentine and Jim Mc-Cormick of Columbus, Ohio, during a police raid arrested by the police at 11 P.M. and are now being held pending trial. Valentine followed a report of a robbery at Columbus and went to arrest the bandits.

The arrests took place after a man had reported at police headquarters and informed the officers that he had been held up and robbed of his wallet and some small cash and tobacco.

Subsequently, the man, who was arrested, was found to be a member of the gang of robbers.

McCarthy and Morris Report On Business Tax ACTS VETOED

Mrs. Morris and wife and Mr.
John Morris, Columbus, Ohio, represented Ohio in the Northern Central League of the American Women, members of the Central Women's Political Committee.

"We were held up to the regular meeting of the Ohio Women's Political Committee and told that the League had been formed to work for political liberty and not for political power," said Mrs.
Morris. "The League has been studied in the many power organizations of the country.

They approached the Women and parties to get them to support the League.

The only thing we could do was to go to the League and ask them to support the League.
